Enclosure 2 files

Recommending the transfer of S.Nos 128, 132 134 & 200 belonging to the temple of Sri Narasimha-Swami at Sibi, from the Govt. Village of Dodda Siba Sira Taluk to the Sarvamanya Chikka Sebi, Tumkur Taluk

Deputy Commissioner's Office
Tumkur District
Dated, Tumkur 17th Nov. 1904

From

K. Doraiswami Iyer Esq.
Deputy Commissioner
Tumkur District

To

L. Anantha Swami Rao Esq B.A
Secretary to the Govt. of H.H. the Maharaja of Mysore,
Inam Department.

Sir,

I have the honor to state that, besides the Inam Villages of Chikka Sibi and Sorekunte in the Tumkur Taluk and Devaraballi in the Sira Taluk which are endowed to the Sri Narsimha Swami Temple at Sibi in the Sira Taluk Survey Nos 128 to 132, 134 and 200 of the Sibi (also known as Dodda Sibi) Village, Sira Taluk are in the enjoyment of the temple, which is situated in S No. 200.

During the Survey Settlement, these 7 numbers, as also Nos 126, 127 and 133 measuring in all 870 acres and 30 Guntas said to belong to the Inam Village of Chikka Sibi were added on to the Sibi Village of the Sira taluk.

All these numbers are unassessed kharab lands but 3 of them viz 126, 133 and 134 are Gomal lands.

3. On the Complaint in 1870 of Karanik Sidramappa and Vallappa, managers of the temple to the Chief Commissioner protesting against the amalgamation of the said 10 numbers with the lands of the Govt. Sibi Village, the matter was referred to Superintendent of Revenue Survey for disposal. That officer instituted an enquiry and, on the Sira Amildar's report ordered the Amildar in his no: 1934 dated 22d December 1872, to set apart the S. nos: 128 to 132 and 134 (excepting S. no. 200) for the purpose of Jatra and the like, and to exclude them from the annual Hulbanni sales, a remark being ordered to be made to this effect in the Phaisal Patrika. (Vide papers 20 & 21 of file no I). The other three nos viz 126, 127, & 133 were reserved, as agreed to by Vallappa, for the grazing of the cattle of the Sibi Village.

4. But as there was no definite order regarding

S. No. 200, Karuk Mallappa was fined Rs 15/- by the Jamabandi Officer for having cultivated a portion of it. On appeal in 1873 the Deputy Commissioner remitted the fine (Vide Para 2 of file No. I) on the ground that the cultivated portion had long been under cultivation and that the Kandayam recovered thereon is utilized by the appellant for the use of the temple.

5. That in 1885-86, however, the same portion of S. No. 200 having been found cultivated, it was brought on the Jekrar Jabli and placed before Mr. (now Sir) P. A. Krishna Murti, the then Deputy Commissioner and Jamabandi Officer, who ordered in December 1886, that "the cultivated portion need not be assessed, since Mallappa contended that S. No. 200 formerly belonged to the Kuram village and that the same be added to it. As this fact has to be reported to the Dewan, a separate reference should be made by the Amildar." (Vide paper 30 of file I). No reference appears to have been made on the subject by the Amildar till December 1895, when portions of S. Nos. 131, 134 and 200 having been found cultivated a report was made by him to this office, referring to the above mentioned order of December 1886.

6. After some correspondence, which took place till 1898, a reference was made to the then Supt. of Revenue Survey regarding S. No. 200, which had not been set apart for the use of the temple; and, in his Jadi No. 38 dated 26.7.98 (Paper 42 of file I) to the Survey Superintendent, the Kuram Supt. clearly states that he was of opinion that ~~it belonged~~ S. No. 200 might be reserved for the temple temple, as the late Inam Commissioner, concurring with the views of the Special Assistant, settled that it belonged to the temple and might be transferred from Doddakibi to the Inam village of Chikkakibi

7. On 6.4.1904 the Manager Nallappa presented a petition to this office praying, that, as the Re-Survey of the Sira Taluk has begun, the 7 numbers of the Doddakibi village belonging to the temple, might be transferred to the Inam village of Chikkakibi

8. On these circumstances, I am of opinion that S. Nos. 128 & 132, 134, and 200 rightly belonged to the temple and as such they may be transferred from the Govt. village of Doddakibi of the Sira Taluk to the Sarvamanya Chikkakibi village of the Inam Tiptur Taluk, as prayed for by the Manager, Nallappa.

9. The Vernacular records on the subject are herewith forwarded for reference.
